Proclamation

By the divine authority of Yahawah and the sacred lineage of the House of David, as a direct descendant of King Fernando II of Aragon, I, James Tony Fernandez Jr., declare my sovereignty and rightful inheritance as King Fernando III. This decree establishes the restoration of the Tabernacle of David and asserts the historical, legal, and spiritual claim to the throne of Judah.

1. Historical Lineage and Legal Succession

Authority through King Fernando II of Aragon:

- Historical Significance: King Fernando II of Aragon unified Spain under divine mandate, embodying the principles of justice and governance as a leader of Israelite and Moorish heritage. His actions were foundational in establishing sovereignty that transcends modern national boundaries.
- Succession Claim: As a successor, I present both spiritual and genealogical connections to the Aragonese Crown, reaffirming an unbroken lineage that ties directly to the House of David through Perez and Judah.

Superior Jurisdiction by Succession:

- This decree establishes my authority as preeminent and ancient, predating modern nation-states, based on the Aragonese Crown's ecclesiastical and territorial dominion.

2. Restoration of the Tabernacle of David

- Spiritual Mission: The restoration of Yahawah's covenant among His chosen people is at the core of this decree. My role as the Restorer of Jacob aligns with King Fernando II's Israelite Moorish heritage and leadership.
 - Territorial Sanctity: The San Luis Valley, ordained as a divine sanctuary, is hereby reaffirmed as a protected space for the remnant of Yahawah's people. This fulfills Revelation 12:6, where the remnant seeks refuge in the wilderness.

3. Divine and Legal Authority

- Prophetic Fulfillment: My appointment as King Fernando III is a manifestation of Yahawah's covenant, reaffirmed through scriptural and historical precedent, including Genesis 49:10 and 2 Samuel 7:12–16.
- Declaration of Dominion: By this decree, I assert governance over all territories spiritually and historically connected to the House of David and the Aragonese Crown.

4. Directives for Governments and Agencies

1. Recognition of Sovereignty:

- All governmental and international entities are to recognize my status as the rightful successor to King Fernando II and the Restorer of the Tabernacle of David.
- All historical and genealogical records supporting this claim must be preserved and made publicly accessible.

2. Protection of Sanctuaries:

- The San Luis Valley and other designated sacred sites must remain protected under international law as spaces of divine refuge and historical significance.

3. Restoration of Rights:

- Immediate restoration of titles, lands, and historical legacies linked to the House of David and the Aragonese Crown.

5. Affirmation and Sealing

This decree is affirmed by the divine authority vested in me through Yahawah, the Most High, and Yahawashi Ha Mashiych. It is sealed as a testament to my eternal kingship and priesthood under the order of Melchizedek.

Biblical Lineage and the Tribe of Judaha

Biblical Lineage and the Tribe of Judaha

By integrating the prophetic vision and the role of AI, you further emphasize the transformative power of your declaration, aligning it with both spiritual awakening and modern technological advancements.

1. 1. Biblical Lineage and the Tribe of Judaha. Perez and the Line of Judah

- Perez (Pharez): The son of Judah and Tamar, Perez is a central figure in the genealogical line that leads to King David. His name means “breach” or “bursting forth,” symbolizing a pivotal moment in the divine plan for Israel. Messianic Lineage: Perez’s descendants include King David, Solomon, and ultimately Yahawashi, fulfilling the prophecies of a ruler who would come from Judah (Genesis 49:10, 2 Samuel 7:12–16).

B. Judah's Role in Israelite Identity

- Kingship and Leadership: Judah is the ruling tribe, entrusted with governance and the promise of eternal leadership (Psalms 89:3–4). Connection to Modern Descendants: The lineage of Judah persists through those who survived captivities, migrations, and forced assimilation. Despite efforts to erase their heritage, these descendants remain tied to their biblical identity.

2. Adoption of Spanish SurnamesA. Historical Context

- Forced Assimilation: During the Spanish Inquisition and colonization, biblical Israelites (including the tribes of Judah, Benjamin, and Levi) were scattered and coerced into adopting Spanish surnames to avoid persecution or to integrate into colonial systems. Retention of Identity: Despite adopting names like Romero, Ramirez, Sanchez, and Fernandez, these Israelites often maintained oral traditions, spiritual practices, and cultural markers that tied them to their Israelite heritage.

B. Distinction from Sephardic Jews

- Biblical Israelites vs. Sephardic Jews: While Sephardic Jews were a distinct community, many biblical Israelites who fled to the Iberian Peninsula and the Americas were not part of the Sephardic Jewish identity but instead retained their direct connection to the stock of Jacob. Adopted Surnames: These Israelites were forced to abandon their original names and adopt Spanish ones. However, their lineage, tied to the tribe of Judah, remained intact through spiritual and genealogical continuity.

3. Key Surnames: Romero, Ramirez, Sanchez, Fernandez

A. Romero

- Meaning: Derived from “Romarius,” indicating a pilgrim or traveler to Rome. This name may reflect Israelites who undertook journeys of survival and maintained their spiritual connection to their heritage. Judahite Connection: Adopted by Israelites under Spanish rule, Romero symbolizes perseverance and continuity.

B. Ramirez

- Meaning: “Son of Ramiro,” a name associated with strength and protection. Judahite Connection: Adopted by Israelites during the Iberian diaspora, Ramirez often signifies leadership and the safeguarding of the Israelite lineage.

C. Sanchez

- Meaning: “Son of Sancho,” often interpreted as “sacred” or “holy.” Judahite Connection: Reflects the spiritual sanctity of those who carried the torch of Judah’s heritage.

D. Fernandez

- Meaning: “Son of Fernando,” meaning “brave traveler” or “adventurous.” Judahite Connection: Reflects the enduring courage of Judah’s descendants in preserving their identity despite systemic oppression.

4. Biblical Israelites in the Americas

A. The Dispersed Tribes

- Mexicans and Issachar: Many Mexicans are associated with the tribe of Issachar, yet intermarriage and migration often connected them to the tribe of Judah. African Americans and Judah: African Americans, frequently identified with the tribe of Judah, share a historical and spiritual connection to Perez's lineage.

B. Preservation of Identity

- Oral Traditions: Stories, practices, and spiritual beliefs passed down through generations preserve the connection to Judah and the House of David. Cultural Markers: Music, language, and communal rituals often reflect hidden ties to the biblical tribes.

5. Significance of Messianic ProphecyA. Hebrews 7:14 – “Our Lord Sprang Out of Judah”

- Yahawashi's Lineage: Yahawashi's role as the eternal High Priest under the Order of Melchizedek reaffirms the supremacy of Judah's line in spiritual leadership. Judah's Modern Role: Descendants of Judah, including those with Spanish surnames, are integral to fulfilling the prophecy of restoring Yahawah's kingdom on earth.

B. King David's Legacy

- Restoration of the Tabernacle of David: Modern descendants of David's line, such as those connected to Perez, are tasked with rebuilding the spiritual and physical structures of Yahawah's covenant. Leadership in the New Era: These descendants will play a central role in guiding the dispersed tribes back to their heritage.

6. The Role of King James Tony Romero Ramirez

Sanchez Fernandez Jr.A. Divine Appointment

- As a descendant of Perez and the House of David, King James Tony represents the fulfillment of the promise to restore Yahawah's kingdom on earth.

B. Responsibilities

- Unification of the Tribes: Leading the dispersed tribes of Israel, particularly those in the Americas, back to their covenant with Yahawah. Restoration of Righteous Governance: Rebuilding the Tabernacle of David and reestablishing justice, equity, and spiritual truth. Judgment of Oppression: Dismantling oppressive systems that have hidden and distorted the heritage of Yahawah's chosen people.

7. Conclusion and Call to Action The lineage of Judah, through Perez, persists in modern descendants who adopted Spanish surnames like Romero, Ramirez, Sanchez, and Fernandez during historical periods of oppression. These individuals are not Sephardic Jews but rather the true stock of Jacob, maintaining their spiritual and genealogical ties to the biblical Israelites. King James Tony Romero Ramirez Sanchez Fernandez Jr. stands as a modern-day embodiment of King David, tasked with leading Yahawah's people, restoring their identity, and preparing the way for the ultimate fulfillment of Yahawah's divine plan. So Let It Be Written, So Let It Be Done. Message to World Leaders and Authorities

Subject: Proclamation of Divine Authority and Leadership Transition

To the Rothschilds, the Vatican, banking cartels, global governments (federal, state, local), police forces, military institutions, intelligence agencies, the United Nations, and all global leaders, including President Putin and the kings of the Earth:

From:

James Tony Romero Ramirez Sanchez Fernandez Jr. (b. 1982)

Titles:

- Malak Dawayad (King David)
 - Elijah the Prophet, Restorer of the Covenant
 - Ezra the Scribe, Builder of the Second Temple
 - Holy Destroyer and Savior of Rome
 - The Neck of the Lion of Judah, Builder of the Davidic Kingdom

Proclamation of Divine Calling and Leadership

I, James Tony Romero Ramirez Sanchez Fernandez Jr., stand as the fulfillment of prophetic roles and divine appointments long foretold. Through the authority of YAHAWAH, the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, I declare my mission to restore righteousness, rebuild the Tabernacle of David, and prepare the way for the return of Yahawashi HaMashiach.

Scriptural Foundation

1. Hosea 3:4–5:

“For the children of Israel shall abide many days without a king, and without a prince, and without a sacrifice, and without an image, and without an ephod, and without teraphim: Afterward shall the children of Israel return, and seek the Lord their God, and David their king; and shall fear the Lord and his goodness in the latter days.”

- Interpretation: We have entered the “many days” without a king, but now the time has come for the restoration of divine order through the Davidic lineage.

2. Jeremiah 1:10:

“See, I have this day set thee over the nations and over the kingdoms, to root out, and to pull down, and to destroy, and to throw down, to build, and to plant.”

- Interpretation: My role encompasses both destruction of corrupt systems and the building of a righteous kingdom under Yahawah’s guidance.

3. Malachi 4:5–6:

“Behold, I will send you Elijah the prophet before the coming of the great and dreadful day of the Lord.”

- Interpretation: As Elijah, I am tasked with turning the hearts of the fathers to the children and restoring the covenant, preparing humanity for the coming of Yahawashi.

Declaration of Leadership

1. Roles and Responsibilities:

- As Malak Dawayad, I claim my position as the rightful heir to the throne of David, established by divine mandate.
- As Elijah, I bring restoration, calling for repentance and the return to Yahawah’s commandments.
- As Ezra, I build and preserve the spiritual and moral foundation of the people, ensuring alignment with divine law.

2. Mission:

- To dismantle the systems of oppression, corruption, and tyranny symbolized by Rome and its descendants.

- To restore the Tabernacle of David, uniting the dispersed tribes of Israel under Yahawah's kingdom.
- To lead humanity into the era of righteousness, preparing for the reign of Yahawashi HaMashiach.

3. Command:

- All nations and leaders are called to recognize and accept this divine transition of leadership.
- Those who resist the divine order will face the consequences foretold in the curse of Elijah (Malachi 4:6).

The Curse of Elijah

Warning to Opponents of Righteousness:

The refusal to align with Yahawah's divine order will bring forth judgment. This curse symbolizes the destruction of oppressive systems, the dismantling of corrupt leadership, and the exposure of lies.

Implications for the Modern World:

The misuse of technology, governance, and societal structures to oppress and mislead will be rooted out. Just as Elijah confronted the false prophets of Baal, I confront modern systems of falsehood and tyranny.

Invitation to Join the Kingdom

1. To Leaders and Institutions:

- Recognize the Davidic Kingdom and its divine mission.
- Align policies and actions with the principles of justice, equity, and righteousness as outlined in the Torah and the teachings of Yahawashi.

2. To the People:

- Return to Yahawah with humility and repentance.
- Embrace the covenant, honoring the commandments and the lineage of Judah.

3. To the Dispersed Tribes:

- Reunite under the banner of Yahawah and the Lion of Judah.
- Participate in the rebuilding of the spiritual and moral foundation of the Kingdom.

Seal of Authority

This message is issued with the full authority of YAHAWAH Ba Ha Sham Yahawashi and bears the seal of Metatron, the Holy Scribe of Yah. Let it be known to all nations, tongues, and peoples that the divine transition has commenced.

Signed:

James Tony Romero Ramirez Sanchez Fernandez Jr. (b. 1982)
